

DEVICE ACTIONABLE BECAUSE OF POTENTIAL DANGER WHEN USED
ACCORDING TO DIRECTIONS

3321. Misbranding of P. M. Massager. U. S. v. Herschell R. Coil (Wawasee Therapy Co.). Plea of nolo contendere. Fine of $100, plus costs. (F. D. C. No. 29991. Sample No. 42868-K.)

INFORMATION FILED: November 7, 1950, Northern District of Indiana, against Herschell R. Coil, trading as the Wawasee Therapy Co., Syracuse, Ind.

ALLEGED SHIPMENT: On or about November 6, 1949, from the State of Indiana into the State of Illinois.

PRODUCT: Examination showed that the device was an 8-inch hard rubber tube with a soft rubber handle on one end and a small, soft rubber lobe on the other end.

NATURE OF CHARGE: Misbranding, Section 502 (a), certain statements in circulars entitled "To Massage the Prostate through the Rectum" and "Prostate Sufferers," which accompanied the device, were false and misleading since the device would not be efficacious for the purposes represented. The statements represented and suggested that the device would be efficacious in the treatment of stiff joints, lack of ambition, tired listlessness, nervousness, aching legs, burning feet, and inability to relax due to continual tension; and that the device would be efficacious to restore virility.

Further misbranding, Section 502 (j), the device was dangerous to health when used in the dosage and with the frequency and duration prescribed, recommended, and suggested in its labeling, namely, "a new instrument made for the sole purpose of enabling you to do this Massaging * * * It can be used gently or firmly according to the necessary requirements to remove the excess, irritating glairy liquid from the prostates * * * Five to 15 minutes twice a week gives amazing results," since such use of the device may result in perforation and rupture of the rectum, and such use by individuals with acute inflammation of the prostate may result in aggravation of the infective process.

DISPOSITION: January 8, 1951. A plea of nolo contendere having been entered, the court imposed a fine of $100, plus costs.
